NINE CHARACTERS IN BANGLADESH • TEN IN SINGAPORE

BEFORE YOU START

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

If a rule here and a file on the drive disagree, this book and the token files win. Everything is versioned together.

ONE LIBRARY

Every mark, colour code, typeface, character and photograph shown in this book ships in the same portable kit. Use the supplied files. Do not rebuild artwork by hand, trace it, or generate a new version of it.

TWO BUILDS

Screens get the RGB build. Print, packaging and signage get the CMYK build with the matching Pantone references. They are not interchangeable and they do not look identical — that is intentional.

TWO MARKETS

Bangladesh runs the nine canonical characters. Singapore runs those nine plus Merlulu. Keep character treatments market-specific; never present Merlulu as part of the Bangladesh nine.

WHAT THIS BOOK COVERS

Identity, colour, typography, the pattern, the character system, voice, photography and video, packaging, event material and the loyalty programme artwork.

WHERE THE FILES LIVE

assets/ artwork · brand/ written guidance · tokens/ design tokens for software · data/characters.json approved character copy · preview.html the browsable catalogue.

01

the brand

SECTION ONE

Who Waffle Up is, what it set out to do, and the three words the whole company is measured against.

Established 2021 in Singapore · first outlet Banani, Dhaka, 16 December 2021 · today the largest waffle chain in Bangladesh, with Singapore trading and further markets in preparation.

WHO WE ARE

Legal entity	Waffle Up Global Pte. Ltd.
Registered	33A Pagoda Street, Singapore 059192
Bangladesh office	Road 11, House 67/C, Block E, Banani, Dhaka-1213
Founded	2021, Singapore • first outlet Banani, Dhaka, 16 Dec 2021
Category	QSR / food-tech startup — the largest and fastest-growing waffle chain in Bangladesh
Markets	Bangladesh • Singapore

Tagline	Square is the new heart
Archetype	The Jester — casual, friendly, humorous
Characters	Nine in Bangladesh; those nine plus Merlulu in Singapore

A food startup that took waffles off the hotel dessert trolley and put them on a stick, on the street, at a price a student can reach.

THE FOUNDER STORY

Mohammad Salman saw a streetside waffle truck in the USA and brought “waffles on a stick” to Dhaka — a city where waffles were a luxury restaurant dessert sold in sets of four. Everything about the brand follows from that inversion.

PURPOSE

Redefine waffles as a delectable street food dessert.

OUR MISSION

Offering innovative,
delicious and premium
products in a joyful,
welcoming environment
that brings people together and creates memories.

THE THREE R'S

The vision names procedures and processes, not just product. Improving how the company runs is vision work, not back-office overhead.

01

reImagine

Reimagine the consumer experience of eating waffles and fuse cuisines into products nobody else is making. Constant reimagination is what keeps growth exponential.

02

redefine

Redefining waffles as street food set the brand apart. To grow sustainably, keep redefining both the products and the procedures behind them.

03

revolutionize

The core of the company's success is its ability to revolutionize process as a food startup. That is what makes the model scalable across the globe.

WHY IT MATTERS HERE

Reimagine feeds the product line, redefine feeds the format, revolutionize feeds the process. A brand book is a process document: use it, and the identity survives every new outlet, market and campaign intact.

WHAT WE VALUE

QUALITY

Premium ingredients, products of the highest calibre. Never cut the recipe to reach a price point.

JOY

Merchandise, communications and service exist to make customers’ lives more enjoyable. The identity is built to feel lively and happy.

COMMUNITY

Building a sense of community around the brand — outlets, events and the Surprise Card are all community devices.

INNOVATION

Fusion products, new formats, new processes. Innovation is expected of the kitchen and of the back office alike.

Four pillars from the brand guideline; the company profile adds Speed and Access. Use the union of the two whenever you write about Waffle Up.

ACCESS

Added by the company profile — use alongside the four pillars when writing about how Waffle Up operates.

Everything in this book is aimed at a young, urban, style-aware audience that shares what it eats.

02

LOGO, SYMBOL & icon

SECTION TWO

Three marks, one identity. The signature wave runs through all of them and is never removed.

THE LOGO

The primary mark. Use it wherever there is room; it is the first thing that makes a surface read as Waffle Up.

ANATOMY

WAFFLE	Cyan letterforms carrying the white signature wave
UP	Pink letterforms carrying the same wave
Plaque	Waffle Gold rounded plate with a Deep Cocoa outline
®	Registered mark, top right — never removed

THE SIGNATURE WAVE

The wave inside the letterforms is the identity — not a decoration on top of it. A Waffle Up logo without the wave is not the Waffle Up logo.

TWO BUILDS

The digital and print builds are separate files with separate colour. Pick by output, never by whichever file is closest to hand.

WAFFLE UP LOGO — RGB .PNG • .EPS

Screens, web, apps, social, video. Built on the digital palette — cyan #0BF9F6, pink #FF629B, gold #FFD56D, cocoa #450001.

WAFFLE UP LOGO — CMYK .PNG • .EPS

Print, packaging, signage, merchandise. Built on the CMYK/Pantone line — #70CBD3, #F0629A, #FFD76D, #3F1212.

Clearspace & Size

CLEARSPACE = HEIGHT OF THE W

In CSS: padding: calc(logo-width × 0.22)

Even spacing in all directions. Nothing — type, image, edge, button — enters the clearspace.

MINIMUM SIZES

Logo, screen	120 PX WIDE
Logo, print	25 MM WIDE
Icon	32 PX

Below the minimum, use the symbol instead of squeezing the full lock-up.

SCALING

Scale proportionally only. Never stretch, squash, skew or rotate the mark, and never rebuild it by hand — always place the supplied file.

FAVICON & APP ICON

Export Icon (rbg) at 512 / 192 / 180 / 32 / 16 px. Don't letterbox it.

THE SYMBOL

The W monogram in a Waffle Gold circle with a cocoa outline. Use it where the full lock-up would read too wide or too small.

Correct uses: app tiles, buttons, stickers, cup lids, socials avatars at small sizes, embroidery, and anywhere the lock-up would fall below its minimum width. The monogram keeps its gold circle and cocoa outline in every one of them.

NEVER CROP THE CIRCLE

NEVER RECOLOUR THE W

the icon

Five approved variants for app icons, favicons and social avatars. Pick by the background it sits on.

ICON (RBG)

ICON (RBG) SOCIAL

ICON (WHITE)

ICON (RED)

ICON (CMYK)

FILE	USE ON
Icon (rbg)	White and light backgrounds – the default for screens
Icon (rbg) – Social	Social profile avatars; padded with its own safe area
Icon (white)	Cyan, pink, cocoa or photographic backgrounds
Icon (red)	Single-colour applications where pink / red is required
Icon (cmyk)	Print

Straight from the brand guideline: even spacing, the signature wave, correct colourisation — maintained across every medium and channel.

✓ RGB LOGO ON WHITE

Even spacing in all directions. Clearspace on every side, at least the height of the W.

✓ FULL LOCK-UP ON A BRAND FIELD

The signature wave always runs through the letterforms. In every size, every medium.

✓ WHITE ICON ON COCOA

Correct colourisation everywhere. RGB build for digital, CMYK build for print.

don'ts

Every one of these has happened. None of them is acceptable, including on internal decks and quick social posts.

FROM THE GUIDELINE

- × Uneven spacing and cropped-out corners
- × Solid coloured letters without the signature wave
- × Single coloured letters without the signature wave
- × The logo without the registered “®” symbol

AND ALSO NEVER

- × Recolour to non-brand colours
- × Stretch, squash, skew or rotate
- × Remove the gold plaque or the cocoa outline
- × Add your own shadows, glows or gradients
- × Place on a busy photo without a plaque or enough contrast
- × Rebuild it by hand
- × AI-generate or “clean up” the mark

03

COLOUR

SECTION THREE

Two primaries, two secondaries, one ink. Cocoa is the only dark — pure black never appears in Waffle Up work.

THE PALETTE

The authoritative colour codes, verified against the logo artwork. Digital values on the left of each pair, the print build beneath.

WAFFLEUP CYAN

CMYK 47 • 85 • 76 • 71
PANTONE 4975 C

WHITE IS PART OF THE SYSTEM

Pure white #FFFFFF carries the signature wave, the logo outlines and every card surface. Deep Cocoa is the text colour — never use #000000.

digital & print

Three reference sheets ship with the kit. Hand the right one to the right supplier and the brand stays the same colour across every surface.

Pantone
4975 C 3F2021	1215 C FBD872

PANTONE — SPOT COLOUR

PRINT TOLERANCE

The specified codes must be held as strictly as the process allows. A small acceptable range of variation exists in print media; anything beyond it goes back to the supplier. Always supply the CMYK build together with the Pantone reference.

LEGACY NOTE

The 2022 Brand Book V.1 lists #6DCBD8 / #F0639A / #FFD66D / #3E1312. Those are superseded — treat any old-file colours you meet as the print/CMYK line, and rebuild digital work on the current RGB values.

tints & roles

Extended steps for interfaces and data. Ship as design tokens in tokens/wup-tokens.css; never invent a new brand colour in code.

Pick one field per surface — the balance is what stops the palette shouting.

OPTION A — CYAN FIELD

OPTION B — PINK FIELD

DOMINANT • 60-75%

One colour owns the surface. Cyan or pink — never both at once.

SECONDARY • 15-25%

The counterpoint. If cyan is the field, pink is the counterpoint, and the other way round.

ACCENTS • 3-5% EACH

At most two accents. Gold is the highlight, cocoa is the ink and the outline. White is the wave.

COLOUR FIELDS

Four ready-made fields. Text colour is fixed by the field — do not improvise new pairings.

Backdrops in photography must follow the brand colour codes — no off-brand backgrounds. Video grades triadically with #6DCBD8 and #F0639A dominating, at 30 fps.

BANGLA	The display faces carry no Bangla. Set Bangla in Noto Sans Bengali or Hind Siliguri , keep the strings short, and prefer warm-and-plain over wordplay — humour translates badly.

FOUR LAYERS

Every hero word is built the same way: background, drop shadow, outline, text. The approved combinations are below.

BACKGROUND	DROP SHADOW	OUTLINE	TEXT

IN ARTWORK

Use the supplied word-mark PNGs rather than rebuilding the effect. They are the approved four-layer builds and they already carry the right shadow offsets.

IN CODE

Reproduce with text-shadow for the outline and drop shadow together — outline offsets at $\pm 3\text{px}$, drop shadow at roughly $10\text{px} / 11\text{px}$ cocoa.

RULES

General Sans for anything a person reads at speed. Bebas Neue for large numerals, tickers and price labels. CHUM and Futura Extra Bold for headers, splash screens, printed receipts and staff-facing celebration moments — not for dense data.

NUMERALS

Use tabular figures for totals and counts so columns line up. Currency is BDT with no decimals: BDT 250 or ₹250.

TOUCH

Minimum touch target 48 px. Staff use these tools one-handed, mid-shift, sometimes with wet hands.

Menu boards, packaging panels, event backdrops, social posts and stickers. One hero word per surface — they compete with each other.

05

the brand pattern

SECTION FIVE

Flowing wave-blobs of cyan, pink and gold on white, scattered with white dots. This is the layout device that makes a surface read as Waffle Up before anyone reads a word.

the signature wave

One artwork file, one rule: keep it behind the content, never at full contrast under body text.

USE IT FOR

Splash and login screens • dashboard headers • printed receipt headers and footers • empty states behind a character • section dividers • packaging panels • event backdrops.

KEEP IT BEHIND

Knock the pattern back or confine it to a band when text sits on top. The pattern is a field, not a texture to tile over everything.

FILES

assets/pattern/Brand-Pattern.jpg — the supplied artwork. A simplified wave divider also ships as a CSS mask in tokens/wup-tokens.css for use in software.

06

THE WAFFLE UP GANG

SECTION SIX

Nine canonical characters in Bangladesh. Those nine plus Merlulu in Singapore. Created by the founder, then formalised into vector art and animation rigs.

THE ROSTER

Several of them are objects rather than people — Stovy is the oven, Icy is the popsicle, Mr Waffle is the waffle.

BANGLADESH — NINE

Mr Waffle • Air Maxi • Bhoppu • Picchi • Stovy • Swirly • Tvy • Spacy • Icy. This is the complete list. There are no secondary or legacy characters.

SINGAPORE — TEN

The Bangladesh nine plus Merlulu, a pink-maned Merlion with a gold W medallion. Market-specific: never present her as one of the Bangladesh nine.

NAMES

Source files use inconsistent spellings. The approved public names are Stovy (not Stovie), Tvy (not TV) and Spacy (not Spacie).

the nine

Each entry carries the approved Surprise Card description — the only wording used in public.

art & references

3d MODELS

Exactly four printable models exist. T-pose artwork in the 2D folders is animation reference — it does not mean a model exists.

MR WAFFLE • MODEL.STL

AIR MAXI • MODEL.STL

PICCHI • MODEL.STL

BHOPPU • MODEL.STL

WHERE THEY ARE

Stored under each character folder as assets/characters/bangladesh/<character>/3d/model.stl. They are source STL files and need a slicer or 3D software — they are not browser-viewable images.

PRINTING THEM

Print in brand colours or in a single colour with painted detail. Keep the proportions of the supplied mesh; do not re-sculpt, re-pose or add accessories.

using the gang

The characters are Waffle Up-owned artwork. Use the supplied files only.

DO

- ✓ One character per screen or campaign piece, full colour, unmodified
- ✓ Use them for achievements, celebrations and product storytelling
- ✓ Use the line-art versions as icons and colouring artwork
- ✓ Keep Bangladesh and Singapore treatments market-specific
- ✓ Quote the approved Surprise Card description word for word

DON'T

- × Redraw, recolour, restyle or generate a new pose
- × Crowd several characters into one small piece
- × Put a character on an error, a payroll screen or a disciplinary notice
- × Use a character on dense data views
- × Rewrite a character’s description or invent a new backstory

SOURCE OF TRUTH

data/characters.json is the machine-readable register of approved names and descriptions. Software should read from it rather than hard-coding copy.

ONE PER MODULE

Several characters map naturally onto parts of the business — Stovy for production, Icy for beverages, Mr Waffle for the waffle range.

MISSING ARTWORK

If the pose or expression you need is not in the kit, request approved artwork. Never fabricate one — including with AI tools.

07 voice & tone

SECTION SEVEN

The Jester. Casual, friendly, humorous — and never funny at the wrong moment.

the jester

Jester brands use humour and wit to engage. Puns, jokes and wordplay are explicitly part of the identity.

The whole company exists to take waffles down from the luxury dessert trolley and put them on a stick, on the street. The voice does the same job: never precious, never corporate.

OBSESSED

OBSESSED

OBSESSED

OBSESSED

FUNNY, NOT SILLY

The joke never gets in the way of the information. If a reader has to decode the sentence to find the fact, rewrite it.

WARM, NOT SOFT

Direct, quick, no hedging. Short sentences. No “please kindly be informed”, ever.

BANGLADESHI AND GLOBAL

Bangla and English mix freely — Ashol WaffleUp Chinun, Bangla Pizza, Square is the new heart.

WHERE HUMOUR GOES

Rule of thumb: if someone is stuck, stressed or handling money, be plain. If they’re fine or they’ve just won, be funny.

CONTEXT	REGISTER	WHY
Labels, table headers, buttons	LITERAL	People are mid-shift and scanning
Errors, validation, compliance, money	LITERAL	Never make someone decode a joke while something is broken
Empty states	PLAYFUL	Nobody is blocked; it is a free moment
Success and completion	PLAYFUL	Reward the person
Nudges, streaks, reminders	PLAYFUL	Motivation, not instruction
Onboarding, first run	PLAYFUL	Sets the tone
Loading	LIGHT	Short, and never annoying on repeat

Microcopy bank

Paste-ready lines. Extend the bank rather than inventing a new tone.

EMPTY STATES

- “Nothing here yet. Suspiciously clean.”
- “No orders yet today. The calm before the crunch.”
- “No wastage logged. Either a perfect day or a forgotten form.”
- “No items match that. Even the search is stumped.”

SUCCESS

- “Shutter down. Go home, legend.”
- “Open for business. Go get ’em.”
- “Counted. Every last stick.”
- “Saved. Crisp.”
- “Sent. Off it goes.”

NUDGES & LOADING

- “7 days, zero missed checklists. Somebody’s on a roll.”
- “Two items below par. Worth a look before the evening rush.”
- “Warming the iron...” “Stacking the squares...”
- “Counting sticks...”

ERRORS — ALWAYS LITERAL

- “Count can’t be negative.”
- “Couldn’t save. You’re offline — we’ll retry automatically.”
- “This item isn’t on this outlet’s stock list.”
- “Photo required before submitting.”

NEVER WRITE

- × “Oops! Something went wrong :(” — say what went wrong and what happens next
- × “Please kindly be informed that...” — corporate stiffness
- × “Indulge in our premium artisanal experience” — wrong register
- × Jokes inside an error, a legal notice, or anything about someone’s pay

TWO LANGUAGES

WRITING BANGLA

Keep strings short — the display faces carry no Bangla, so set it in Noto Sans Bengali or Hind Siliguri. Humour translates badly: prefer warm-and-plain over pun-based. Numbers and currency stay in Western numerals with BDT or the taka sign.

WRITING ENGLISH

Sensory and a little over the top for product copy — “Death by Nutella... RIP.” Plain and quick for anything functional. Code-switching between the two languages is on-brand, not a mistake.

Bangla is not a translation afterthought. Outlet teams may work in it primarily; management dashboards run in English.

THE AUTHENTICITY LINE

Ashol WaffleUp Chinun — “know the real Waffle Up”. Used on menus, packaging and signage as the Bangla mark of the genuine article.

08

ACCURACY FIRST

An accurate representation of the product must be the priority. Styling makes it look its best; it never shows something the customer will not receive.

SHOOTING IT

Key elements and general specifications, straight from the guideline.

BACKDROPS

Must follow the brand colour codes.
No off-brand backgrounds, ever.

LIGHT

Hard light with stark contrast — that is the brand persona, not a style choice.

PRODUCT

Accurate representation of the product is the priority in every frame.

STORY

Dynamic shots with a storytelling approach — motion, splash, mid-air, hands in frame.

Supported aspect ratios	Between 1.91:1 and 4:5
Recommended image size	1080 px wide, 566–1350 px tall depending on orientation

Four beats: opening, content, closing, editing. Graded to the brand, always.

CONTENT

High-quality footage showing waffles being prepared and served. Attention-grabbing visuals that carry the flavour combinations. Clear, concise narration or text overlays covering ingredients and process. An upbeat, engaging soundtrack that fits the brand.

01 • OPENING

Hook in the first seconds — the product, the colour, the logo.

02 • CONTENT

Preparation and serving, shot close and lit hard.

03 • CLOSING

Logo, handle and a call to action. Never a fade to a black frame — use cocoa.

04 • EDITING

Cut on the beat. Keep the grade consistent across the whole campaign.

09 packaging & environment

SECTION NINE

Boxes, trays, cups and bags carry the pattern, the word-marks and the characters. So do backdrops, side-drops, table fronts and banners.

packaging

Print artwork uses the CMYK build. Every panel carries a word-mark, the pattern, or a character — never a bare surface.

events

Backdrops, side-drops, table fronts and X-banners. Sizes are in the file names — order to those dimensions.

10

MERCHANDISE

SECTION TEN

Stationery, giveaways and branded objects. The rules that govern a screen govern a sock, a flask and a business card too.

Business cards • notebook • letterhead • gift bag • socks and socks box • water flask • calendar • pop socket • balloon • pen and pen box • mug.

on an object

ONE FIELD PER ITEM

Pick cyan or pink as the dominant colour of the object, the other as the counterpoint, gold as the highlight and cocoa as the ink. The 60–75 / 15–25 / 3–5 ratio applies to a flask exactly as it does to a screen.

ONE BRAND DEVICE

Every piece carries one of the four devices — the logo, the symbol, a word-mark or a character. Never a bare surface, and never all four fighting on the same face.

THE PATTERN WRAPS

The signature wave is the default ground for anything that wraps — bags, cups, boxes, sock cuffs, balloon bodies. Keep it behind the mark, never at full contrast under type.

SMALL ITEMS USE THE SYMBOL

Below the logo minimum — 120 px on screen, 25 mm in print — drop to the W monogram in its gold circle. Pop sockets, pin badges, sock cuffs, pen clips and zip pulls all take the symbol, not the lock-up.

TEXTILE & SINGLE COLOUR

Embroidery, debossing and one-colour print break thin cocoa keylines. Use the line-art character or the symbol, scale the outline weight up with the artwork, and never fake the four-layer type effect in thread.

COLOUR BUILD

Everything physical is produced from the CMYK artwork with the Pantone references attached. Only the e-commerce photography and the listing graphics use the RGB build.

APPROVALS

New merchandise artwork goes back to the brand owner before production. Characters are never redrawn, re-posed, recoloured or AI-generated for a product — if the pose you need does not exist, request approved artwork.

Merchandise is the brand at arm's length from a shop. It has to be recognisable across a room and survive being sat on.

THE CORE RANGE

ITEM	CARRIES
Business card	Front: a character, the name, the role and a QR code on a pink field. Back: the symbol and the lock-up with Est. 2021 on cyan
Letterhead	Lock-up, the pattern as a band, the handle and the Dhaka address
Notebook	Full-bleed pattern or one character on the cover; symbol blind on the back
Gift bag	Pattern ground, lock-up on the face, one character on the reverse
Socks & socks box	Character repeat on the sock; a single character face on the tube
Water flask	One colour field, symbol or word-mark — no full lock-up on the curve
Calendar	A different character per month; cocoa figures, pink weekends
Pop socket · pin	Symbol only
Balloon	Single-colour lock-up or symbol on cyan, pink or gold latex
Pen & pen box	Word-mark on the barrel, pattern inside the lid
Mug	Pattern wrap with one character; symbol on the base

What each item carries. Anything not on this list is a new product and needs artwork approval before it is quoted.

Inner	80 gsm offset paper, 1-colour print

11

the SURPRISE CARD

SECTION ELEVEN

One card per BDT 500 spent. A collectible character card, or a rarer scratch card that wins something on the spot.

HOW it WORKS

Two card types come out of the same envelope. Every card carries a unique serial.

CHARACTER CARD

Collectible. The character’s approved bio on the front, colour-in line art on the back, and an invitation to share the finished drawing. Ten designs.

SCRATCH CARD

Rarer. An instant win — a free item or a piece of merchandise — redeemable at designated outlets, with a printed validity date.

EARNING

One card per BDT 500 spent, handed over at the till with the order.

SERIALS

Every card carries a unique serial, in the form FLL-9525656492. Batches are tracked centrally.

AT THE TILL

Issue and redemption are two separate zero-value categories. Any system touching the programme must keep that distinction — it is the only thing that makes it measurable.

artwork & sound

Additional card artwork in the kit, plus the house track supplied for campaign use.

Pick the format by the job. When in doubt, send vector to print and raster to screens.

FORMAT	USE FOR
.eps / .ai	Print, signage, packaging, large-format — hand to the supplier
.png	Screens, decks, documents, social — transparent where needed
.jpg	Photography and mock-ups only, never a mark on a flat colour
.stl	The four printable character models
.otf / .ttf	The licensed typefaces

BEFORE YOU PUBLISH

✓ Right build — RGB for screens, CMYK for print

✓ Signature wave present in the mark

✓ Clearspace clear on all four sides

✓ Ink is cocoa, not black

✓ One dominant colour, one counterpoint, at most two accents

✓ Character artwork unmodified and market-correct

✓ Copy plain where it matters, playful where it is safe

KEEPING THIS BOOK CURRENT

The book is generated from the library itself: brand-guidelines/index.html is the source and brand-guidelines/build.py rebuilds the PDF. Add artwork to assets/, update the page, re-run the build — the book and the library stay in step.
